Specifications for Major Program

Name of School (Program) [School of Law (Day Course)]

Program name	Law and Politics Program
1. Degree to be obtained: In this Program, students are able to obtain a bachelor of law degree. To obtain this degree, students are required to earn 124 credits for class subjects in this program, in accordance with the study subject requirements.
2. Overview The Law and Politics Program aims to provide society with professionals who have a healthy social consciousness and a certain level of legal attainments by educating students to develop basic capabilities that can be applied in various areas, to systematically understand various issues in administrative processes and corporate activities in contemporary global society from a legal perspective, and to acquire the abilities and skills required for proposing solutions. In this program, students are educated through a bottom-up process. In the first year, students widely study Japanese affairs and Japanese society through Liberal Arts Education (introduction) and, in the second year, take the other specialized fundamental subjects to establish the fundamental knowledge that forms the basis of further study (study of basics). They then develop applied abilities and practical skills through the specialized subjects and exercises in specialized areas in the third and fourth years (application and integration).
3. Diploma policy (policy awarding degrees and goal of the program) The Law and Politics Program develops global human resources having superior practical capabilities in order to comprehensively cope with various issues of global society based on their legal attainments. Based on the aim above, this program will award the degree of bachelor of law to students who have acquired the capabilities described below and earned the required credits for the educational course: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The ability to identify a social problem from a broad perspective;• Capabilities for analyzing issues in legal and political processes and corporate activities based on systematic understanding of a legal system from a global point of view;• The ability to solve problems between people having different cultures and values by understating their cultures and values, expressing one's opinion, and holding discussions; and• The ability to propose a specific solution to an issue in administrative processes and corporate activities based on logical thinking.
4. Curriculum policy (policy for arranging and implementing the curriculum) To enable students to achieve the targets that have been defined for the program, the educational courses of the Law and Politics Program are organized and implemented according to the following policies: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• In the first year, students take courses of Liberal Arts Education (such as "Peace Science Courses", "Area Courses", and "Social Cooperation Courses") and widely study Japanese affairs and Japanese society.• In the second year, students establish the basis for achieving the target of the program while taking fundamental subjects related to law, politics, and social science ."

- In the third and fourth years, students attend a "specialized seminar", and take subjects regarding application in various areas, in order to develop their applied abilities for analyzing issues in legal and political processes and corporate activities in each specialized area.
- Students integrate the knowledge, skills, and abilities that they have acquired in this program to develop problem solving abilities while preparing their seminar thesis in the "specialized seminar", and their own thesis in the integration subject " Integrated subjects Law and Politics " (provided in the second semester of the fourth year).
- Academic achievement is evaluated based on grade scores for the subjects and the level of achievement against the target defined for the educational program.

5. Start time and acceptance conditions

Registration for this program is conducted when the student enters the university. No particular requirement is defined for credits that must be earned before registration.

6. Obtainable qualification: None

7. Class subjects and their contents

- * For class subjects, refer to the subject table in Attachment 1. (Subject category table for the Law and Politics Program)
- * For the details of the class subjects, refer to the syllabus that is published each academic year.

8. Academic achievement

The evaluation criteria are specified for each evaluation item for academic achievement, and the level of achievement against these criteria is designated at the end of each semester.

The evaluation score for each evaluation item is converted to a numerical value (S = 4, A = 3, B = 2, and C = 1) and the evaluation standard for academic achievement, from when the student entered the university to the end of the last semester, is determined using these values while applying weightings. The evaluation standards consist of three levels, i.e. Excellent, Very Good, and Good.

Achievement evaluation	Numerical conversion
S (Excellent: 90 or more points)	4
A (Very good: 80 - 89 points)	3
B (Good: 70 - 79 points)	2
C (Passed: 60 - 69 points)	1

Academic achievement	Evaluation standard
Excellent	3.00 - 4.00
Very Good	2.00 - 2.99
Good	1.00 - 1.99

- * Refer to the relationship between evaluation items and evaluation criteria described in Attachment 2.
- * Refer to the relationship between evaluation items and class subjects described in Attachment 3.
- * Refer to the curriculum map in Attachment 4.

9. Graduation thesis (graduation research) (meaning, student allocation, timing, etc.)

For the tutorial for graduation theses, each seminar makes its own decisions.

The tutorial for graduation theses is provided in the integration subject " Integrated subjects Law and Politics " in the second semester of the fourth year.

10. Responsibility

(1) Responsibility for PDCA (plan, do, check, and act) cycle

- The faculty committee of the program is engaged in planning and implementing this program under coordination by the head of the program.

For the processes of "check" and "act", for this program, the education affairs committee of the school submits solutions during the evaluation and check processes and the dean of school implements them.

(2) Evaluation of the program

- Perspectives for evaluation of the program

Level and distribution of students' achievement of each target in this program

Systematicity of the program (including consistency in the syllabus for each class subject)

Consistency between the contents and the syllabus for each class subject

- Evaluation method

The education affairs committee of the school checks and evaluates the level and distribution of students' achievement and the systematicity of the program based on the relevant materials. The committee also evaluates the contents of classes based on the class evaluation by students.

- Policy and method of feedback to students

The distribution of the achievement levels of all students for each evaluation item is presented in order to allow them to identify their own position in the distribution.

The results of the check and evaluation processes are used to improve the program.

Placement of Liberal Arts Education in the Major Program

The liberal arts education in this program aims to broaden students' perspective to enable them to examine historical and contemporary issues, including challenges regarding peace building, based on the ability to identify social issues from a wide point of view. It also aims to improve foreign language capabilities to enhance international communication and understanding of different cultures, promote acquisition of the knowledge and skills required for adapting to an information-intensive society, and develop an understanding and awareness of fitness, health, and sports. Students are educated to develop capabilities for discussion based on discernible facts, and effective presentation that constitutes the basis for situation analysis, logical thinking, and the ability to make proposals.
