3. Admissions Policy

The Department of Integrated Global Studies (IGS) hopes to admit students with the following attributes, based on the diploma policy and curriculum policy for the Integrated Global Studies Program organized by the Department.

- (1) Students who would like to understand global issues with an integrative perspective to pursue world peace while respecting linguistic, cultural, and religious differences;
- (2) Students who are interested in natural sciences and would like to work towards the harmonious relationship between human beings and nature; and
- (3) Students who are willing to improve language skills and make a contribution to global society.

The Department expects that, before enrollment, prospective students have developed an interest in and learned about the following:

- A wide range of academic areas across disciplinary boundaries such as the humanities and sciences, and various challenges confronting present-day society; and
- Problems and issues regarding the international community, the global environment, and cross-cultural understanding.

The Department hopes to admit students who, after their enrollment, will be able to:

- Understand and analyze the various challenges confronting the international community from multifaceted perspectives transcending disciplinary boundaries between the humanities and sciences (integrated thinking);
- Understand others irrespective of the differences among countries/regions, cultures, religions and languages, and think about things from a global perspective encompassing human society and its surrounding natural environment (global vision); and
- Address various challenges of the international community from a peace-seeking viewpoint, and work toward the realization of world peace and harmony between people and nature, in a cooperative and creative manner (cooperative action).

Important evaluation items

[Interest, motivation and attitude]

Interviews and personal statements are used to assess if the applicants have extensive intellectual interest, the intellectual ability to determine what they should address from among the various challenges confronting present-day society, and the broad perspective that is required in order to play an active role in the international community.

[Knowledge and skills]

Academic transcripts and test results, personal statements, documents to prove English language proficiency, and EJU Score Report are used to assess if the applicants have the capability to adapt to the curriculum policy of the Department of Integrated Global Studies, by confirming that they have acquired broad basic academic abilities, logical thinking ability, the ability to read and comprehend, and the power of expression.

[Ability to think, judge and have expressive power]

Interviews and personal statements are used to assess if they have an ability to think flexibly, judge and have expressive power in order to find ways to resolve problems that they should address.

[Independence and cooperativity]

Personal statements are used to assess if they have developed the independence and cooperativity necessary to resolve problems that they should address.

4. Application Eligibility

Applicants must fulfill the following Requirements 1 to 4.

Requirement 1: Nationality

Applicants must have a nationality other than Japanese at the time of application period.

Requirement 2: Education Qualifications

Applicants must satisfy any one of the following conditions by the time of enrollment to IGS.

- b. Persons who have completed, in a country other than Japan, a school curriculum that is equivalent to that of senior high school level (including those who have passed an examination in the said country that is recognized as an academic qualification test that certifies that the applicant has an academic ability equivalent to or higher than that of those who have completed such a curriculum), and who have completed, or who are expected to complete a pre-university preparation education curriculum required for admission to universities in Japan, which is designated by the Minister of MEXT, or other preparatory curriculum consisting of education relating to subjects required for admission to universities in Japan and training at facilities separately designated by the Minister of MEXT.
- c. Persons who have completed, or who are expected to complete, in a country other than Japan, a school curriculum that is equivalent to that of a senior high school level, which is separately designated by the Minister of MEXT (only if the completion of the curriculum is considered comparable to the completion of an 11 or more-year school curriculum in the said country, and the curriculum satisfies other requirements specified by the Minister of MEXT).

- d. Persons who have completed, or who are expected to complete a curriculum at an educational institution established in Japan within the scope of the educational system of a foreign country, that is equivalent to the curriculum of schools that correspond to high school level in the said country (only if the completion of the curriculum is considered comparable to the completion of a 12-year school curriculum in the country's educational system).
- e. Persons who have completed, or who are expected to complete a curriculum at an educational institution established in Japan within the scope of the educational system of a foreign country, that is equivalent to the curriculum of schools that correspond to high school level in the said country (except if the completion of the curriculum is considered comparable to the completion of a 12-year school curriculum in the country's educational system), and who have completed the preparatory education curriculum specified in item b above.

(Note 2) Persons who have attended international schools and American schools may not be eligible to apply, or it may take time to confirm their application eligibility. For these reasons, they should inquire about their eligibility as early as possible before the application period.

- (2) Persons who have obtained, or who are expected to obtain by March 31, 2020, the International Baccalaureate Diploma qualification granted by the International Baccalaureate Organization, which is a foundation established in accordance with the Swiss Civil Code.
- (3) Persons who have obtained, or who are expected to obtain the Abitur certificate, recognized as the qualification for admission into a university by the Federal Republic of Germany.
- (4) Persons who have obtained, or who are expected to obtain by March 31, 2020, the Baccalauréat Diploma, recognized as the qualification for admission into a university by the Republic of France.
- (5) Persons who have obtained, or who are expected to obtain by March 31, 2020, the General Certificate of Education Advanced Level (GCE A Level), recognized as the qualification for admission into a university by the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.
- (6) Persons who have completed, or who are expected to complete, a 12-year education curriculum by March 31, 2020 in a school accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) headquartered in California, the United States of America; the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI) headquartered in Colorado, the United States of America; or the European Council of International Schools (CIS) headquartered in Hampshire, the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

Step 2: Select ‘Account Registration’ on the UCARO log in screen

Hiroshima University uses the UCARO website for the process from the application to enrollment procedures. UCARO is an Internet application and enrollment procedure support system.

Account registration for UCARO is required for all applicants (free of charge) and it enables applicants to use the above online application system and complete the enrollment procedures.

Step 3: Input your application data into the online application system

Follow the instruction on the screen and enter your name, address, etc.

The disclosure of entrance examination results service is available. For this service, JPY 300 is required as the disclosure fee. If you would like to request this disclosure, please select “Yes” in the ‘Disclosure of Entrance Examination Results’ section. Note that the result is only indicated with a grading scale letter (A, B, C, or D). Detailed information is provided on page16.

Step 4: Confirm the necessary documents and upload your photo

Confirm the necessary documents when they are shown and upload a digital photo of yourself.

Step 5: Payment of application fee (JPY 17,000)

Choose the method of payment from the following list. For applications from outside Japan, only credit card payments can be accepted.

1. Credit Cards: VISA, MasterCard, JCB, AMERICAN EXPRESS, Diners Club
2. Convenience Stores: 7-Eleven, LAWSON, MINISTOP, FamilyMart, Daily Yamazaki, Seicomart
3. Banking facilities’ ATM【Pay-easy】
4. Online Banking (Japanese bank account only)

(Note)

- In addition to the application fee, applicants must pay JPY 500 as the processing fee.
- If you select “Yes” in the ‘Disclosure of Entrance Examination results’ section at Step 3, JPY 300 is added to the application fee.

Important notices regarding the application fee

The application fee, once paid, will not be refunded for any reason.

However, in cases (1) and (2) below, the application fee is refundable after deducting the bank transfer fee. If the disclosure fee is paid, it is also refundable. Therefore in such cases, please clearly write the reason for demand of refund, name, postal code, address, transfer destination information, and contact telephone number in the prescribed format given from the university and send it to the address mentioned below by postal mail by February 28, 2020.

(1) If the application documents have not been submitted, or if they have not been accepted

(2) If duplicate payments of the application fee have been made in error

Address:

Office of Admissions, Hiroshima University

1-3-2 Kagamiyama, Higashi-Hiroshima, 739-8511 Japan

Note that unsuccessful applicants for the first selection will receive a refund of JPY 13,000.

How to obtain a refund will be notified to the applicants along with their first selection results.

Step 6: Initial registration process complete (Your application is NOT completed yet.)

You will be issued with a registration number (not your examinee’s number). Please make a note of it or to print out a copy of the computer screen showing the number. The registration number is needed for confirming the application details later, and for sending the application documents by post.

Step 7: Submission of application documents through registered mail

Prepare an envelope that accommodates A-4 size documents for sending application documents. Write the application number, the postal code, address, and the name of the applicant on the envelope. Send the envelope containing all the necessary documents via simple registered mail (Kan-i-Kakitome 簡易書留) to the following address.

(IMPORTANT)

1. Applicants should check the examination site at least a day before the interview. Be aware of precautions regarding the examination. Applicants are not permitted to enter the examination site buildings on the day before the examination.
2. On the examination day, enter the room where the examination is being held at least 30 minutes before the examination. After the beginning of the examination, applicants cannot enter the room if more than 30 minutes late. If you are more than 30 minutes late, contact the office of the examination site.
3. Bring your Hiroshima University Examination Card, EJU Examination Voucher, writing materials (a black pencil, mechanical pencil, eraser, ruler, and pencil sharpener) and a watch (equipped with only the clock function).
4. Before entering the room, be sure to turn off the alarm setting and the power supply of your cellular phone, smart phone, wearable device, electronic dictionary, digital voice recorder or other electronic devices, and then place them in your bag. During the examination, if you put on or hold such devices or reference materials in your hand and not leave them in your bag, it may be regarded as cheating. Be sure to check the rules to be followed by applicants, which are set for each examination site.
5. In the examination site and room, applicants must not commit any acts that cause other applicants trouble and that impair fairness in the examination. Also, be sure to follow the instructions of the proctors.
6. Accommodations during their stay for the examination should be arranged by applicants themselves.
7. Hiroshima University may take such measures as postponement of the day or the start time of the examination, when it is difficult to implement the entrance examination due to worsening weather conditions caused by a typhoon etc., the outbreak of an epidemic infectious disease, or for other reasons. In such a case, be sure to access the Hiroshima University website (<https://www.hiroshima-u.ac.jp>), which will provide information on the above measures.
8. For other inquiries regarding taking the examination, please contact the School of Integrated Arts and Sciences.

※The Kasumi Campus has been smoke-free since April, 2018.

Splendor Scholarship Program

Full tuition exemption

Monthly scholarship: 100,000JPY

“Splendor Scholarship Program” is Hiroshima University’s original program to assist students with excellent academic record and remarkable personality but have financial difficulties continuing their university education.

1. Overview

Contents of support: Full tuition exemption (from the 3rd grade until the end of the standard period of study) and monthly scholarship of 100,000JPY

Number of recipients: Only a few students (New 3rd year undergraduates who enrolled in AY2018)

*Scholarship recipients who failed to meet the academic requirements set by Hiroshima University (HU) during their period of study will lose their eligibility for the scholarship.

* Students who graduate and proceed to one of HU’s graduate schools can continue to receive scholarship if they meet the requirements set by HU.

2. Application

Conditions: 2nd year undergraduates (except enrollees admitted by the “FURUSATO Admission Quota” for the School of Medicine in AY2018) who meet the three requirements written in the following “3. Selection criteria” at the time of application.

How to apply: Submit the necessary documents during the application period (Jan. 20th thru Jan. 31st, 2020).

Refer to the University’s website for details of the application documents (format).

Laptop Requirements

From Academic Year 2015, every student at Hiroshima University has been requested to have their own laptop and to use it in their academic activities. You will use your laptop in Introduction to University Education and other IT-related lectures. You will also use your laptop and the Internet on a lot of occasions, including when writing lecture reports and papers.

Administrative procedures such as course registration, viewing your grades/credits, receiving messages from teachers/the administrative office, etc. are made via the student portal site, MOMIJI (<https://momiji.hiroshima-u.ac.jp/>). Computers are often used in lectures. You must bring your laptop to classrooms when asked by your teachers. Therefore, you need to prepare a laptop before the first school term starts.

Note that laptop requirements are reviewed every year and may differ depending on the school/department. If you already own a laptop meeting the requirements, you do not need to purchase a new one.

Requirements for AY 2019 are available at: https://www.hiroshima-u.ac.jp/en/about/initiatives/jyoho_ka/hikkei_pc

Requirements for AY 2020 will be available from December 2019 at the above URL.

Important Notice For those who have difficulty preparing a laptop due to economic circumstances

Upon the request from students who are deemed eligible for exemption or postponement of the payment of the enrollment fee, Hiroshima University will lend a laptop free of charge for one year. If you wish to lend a laptop, you need to make an application at the same time you apply for exemption or postponement of payment of the enrollment fee.
