

The Center for Peace, Hiroshima University
224th Research Seminar

Airspace Tribunal & Topologies of Air

Monday, 9 December 2019
14:00-17:00 (open at 13:30)
Higashi-Senda Mirai-Sosei Center 3-1~3-3
Language: English

Nick Grief

(via Skype)

Professor, Kent Law School Barrister practising from Doughty Street Chambers, London

International law, human rights and air law.

Andrew Hoskins

Interdisciplinary Research Professor, the College of Social Sciences, University of Glasgow

Media sociologist: media, memory and conflict

Shona Illingworth

Artist
Reader in Arts, the University of Kent.
Immersive video and multi-channel sound installations

memory, cultural erasure and histories in social tension and trauma

Renata Salecl

Professor, Psychology and Psychoanalysis of Law, University of London Senior Researcher, the Institute of Criminology, Ljubljana, Slovenia
"Tyrrany of Choice"

Participation is free for all. No need to register in advance.

Contact: The Center for Peace, Hiroshima University
Email: heiwa@hiroshima-u.ac.jp

*Topologies of Air is commissioned by The Wapping Project.
Supported by Arts Council England and Journal of Digital War.*