

○ Hiroshima University Guidelines for Special Presidential Commendations

(President's Decision of October 7, 2016)

Hiroshima University Guidelines for Special Presidential Commendations

(Purpose)

- [1] These Guidelines prescribe necessary matters pertaining to special presidential commendations that are made by the President on special occasions, in accordance with the provisions of Article 7, paragraph 2 of the Hiroshima University Guidelines for Presidential Commendations (President's Decision of April 1, 2004; hereinafter, the “Presidential Commendations Guidelines”).

(Implementation of Commendation)

- [2] Special Presidential Commendations shall be implemented when either of the following is applicable:
- (1) Commendation is given to an executive, employee or outside individual who falls under any of the items of [2] of the Presidential Commendations Guidelines, or to organizations to which such individual belongs, at a time other than the time set forth in [6] of the Presidential Commendations Guidelines; or
 - (2) Commendation is given to an executive, employee or outside individual who is deemed to have made contribution to not only Hiroshima University but also the broad society in general, or to an organization to which such individual belongs, for a reason other than the criteria set forth in the items of [2] of the Presidential Commendations Guidelines.

(Method of Commendation)

- [3] A Special Presidential Commendation shall be given in accordance with the provisions of [5] of the Presidential Commendations Guidelines.

(Time of Commendation)

- [4] A Special Presidential Commendation shall be given at a time that is appropriate according to the content of the commendation.

Supplementary Provision

These Guidelines shall come into effect as of October 7, 2016.