

14th Homecoming Day at Higashi-Senda Campus Special Lecture in Hiroshima University Law School “Global Ground Zero: Hiroshima, Transformation, and the Praxis of Peace”

*Registrations: No registration needed.

* Language: English (With consecutive interpretation to Japanese)

Nov.21,2020(Sat) 13:30~15:30

Hiroshima University (Higashi-Senda Campus, Room #M401-402)

Address: 1-1-89 Higashi-Senda-machi, Naka-ku, Hiroshima City

*The closest tram station is “Nisseki-byoin-mae (Hiroshima Red Cross Hospital)”.

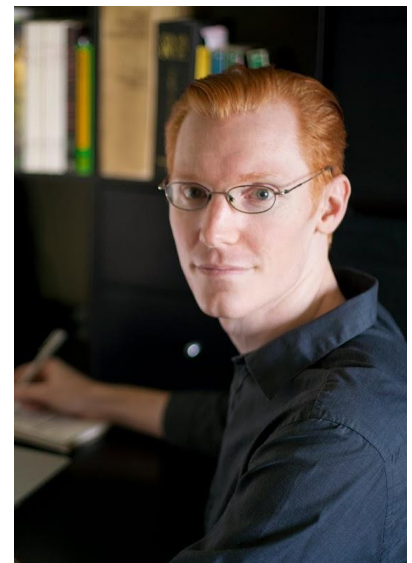

Please use public transportation.

Lecturer : PETER CHORDAS
(Freelance Journalist in Hiroshima City)

We are delighted to have freelance writer Peter Chordas as our guest lecturer this November. Peter has written articles on Hiroshima and its legacy for the Japan Times, and helped translate and edit Atomic Bomb books and testimonies in English. He is a member of Hiroshima Interpreters for Peace.

*Works:

- JAPAN TIMES – ARTICLE "Is time running out to preserve Japan's A-bomb legacy?" (August 2, 2020)
- JAPAN TIMES – ARTICLE "60 years after Sadako Sasaki's death, the story behind Hiroshima's paper cranes is still unfolding" (August 1, 2018)
- JAPAN TIMES – ARTICLE "Hope After the Horror Revealed in Letters from Postwar Hiroshima" (August 2, 2017) etc.

*This lecture might be canceled due to the spread of the new coronavirus (COVID-19) infection. When the cancellation we will post the cancellation announcement on our website.

URL: <https://www.hiroshima-u.ac.jp/lawschool>

[Inquiries] Higashi-Senda Area Support Office, Hiroshima University
E-mail : senda-bk-sien@office.hiroshima-u.ac.jp
Sponsorship : Hiroshima University Law School