

HIROSHIMA UNIVERSITY

Department of Integrated Global Studies (IGS) Online Events in June and July 2022

IGS is an English-taught 4-year undergraduate program. The program covers a wide range of study areas, including humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences. Interdisciplinary learning and a student-centered curriculum are also unique features of the program.

IGS presents inspiring online lectures and fascinating departmental features via zoom. Scan QR code to register for the session!

[June] LECTURES & IGS INFORMATION SESSION 9:00 am to 10:50 am on Saturday, June 18, 2022

Time is shown in Japan Standard Time (UTC/GMT +9)

9:00 am to 9:30 am JST

Lecture “Cowboy Bebop and the Versatility of Culture” by Dr. Maria Grajdian, Associate Professor

9:35 am to 10:15 am JST

IGS information session

Program features, student life, scholarships, etc.

Dr. Carolin Funck, Vice Department Head,
and Ms. Naoe Kawamoto, Associate Professor

10:20 am to 10:50 am JST

Lecture “How the ocean absorbs atmospheric CO<sub>2</sub>?” by Dr. Yoko Iwamoto, Associate Professor

[July] IGS INFORMATION SESSION 5:00 pm to 6:00 pm on Friday, July 15, 2022

Time is shown in Japan Standard Time (UTC/GMT +9)

In the information session, Dr. Carolin Funck, Dr. Maria Grajdian, and an IGS student will introduce the IGS Program, student life, and scholarships and answer your questions.