Short description of the city	https://www.city-lyon.fr/presentation-de-la-ville-de-lyon.html Along the Saône, bathed in the ochre and pink colors of Italy, the Old Lyon is tinged with a Renaissance and humanist charm... The quays of the Rhône, more austere, have the grandeur and magnificence of classicism... Everywhere, it is good to stroll, to enjoy a sunny terrace, to get lost in a traboules. Also, it is possible to go up and down the slopes along endless stairs or picturesque climbs. Then, visit a museum, take a leisurely stroll in the shade of the hundred-year-old trees of the Tête-d'Or park or along the banks of the Rhône towards the Cité internationale... before sitting down in one of the many "bouchons" of this capital of gastronomy. For Lyon raises the pleasures of the mouth to the rank of a true art. Benefiting from the rich products of the surrounding soils, from the cosmopolitan contributions born from the mixing of populations over the ages, Lyon has perfected a simple and family cuisine, rich and tasty. Its numerous restaurants - some of which have a solid reputation - and its pastry chefs and chocolatiers are a permanent gourmet temptation... Translated with www.DeepL.com/Translator (free version)
