

2023 INFORMATION SHEET FOR INCOMING EXCHANGE STUDENTS

Hiroshima University Study Abroad (HUSA) Program

Updated:

Name of university	Hamburg University
Contact person for incoming exchange students	Lennart Fuhse (Mr.) incomings-japan.aai@uni-hamburg.de
University website	https://www.uni-hamburg.de/en.html
General information about the university
University features
Short description of the city
Exchange program website
Areas of study open for exchange students	German language courses, English language courses
Areas of study NOT available to exchange students	Courses other than language courses are not generally available to exchange students. The member of staff in charge of teaching the respective class decides whether exchange students can take the class.
Course catalogue	https://www.uni-hamburg.de/en/sprachenzentrum/daf/kurse.html
Summer courses	-
Academic calendar	https://www.uni-hamburg.de/en/campuscenter/studienorganisation/studienverlauf/semestertermine.html
Orientation schedule for incoming students	Orientation events during the first week of October
Number of exchange students to be accepted per academic year	Either 2 students for 12 months each or 4 students for 6 months each (however, max. 2 students at the same time)
Availability for fall semester	yes
Application deadline for admission	15th May 2023
Application material	Letter of self-introduction, Transcript of Records, Dormitory room application sheet (will be sent when application period starts)
Language requirements	No requirement, but German language proficiency at B1 level STRONGLY recommended
Other requirements	-
Preparatory language course for incoming students	-
Housing assistance	Housing with student dormitory (independent housing corporation)
Housing application deadline	15 th May 2023
Living costs	Around 900 to 1000 EUR
Meal plan	-
Insurance packages exchange students are required to purchase	Students join German national health care after arrival in Germany (120 EUR per month)
Vaccination requirements	Vaccination against Covid-19 STRONGLY recommended
Health facilities on campus	No special facilities on campus, but students get free access to the national German health care system after joining the national health insurance
Visa requirements	Application procedure to be announced during application process