General information about the university	Founded in 1963, The Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK) is a forward-looking comprehensive research university with a global vision and a mission to combine tradition with modernity, and to bring together China and the West. CUHK aims to nurture students with both specialized knowledge and wisdom for life. The education experience here is distinguished by a flexible credit unit system, a college system, bilingualism and multiculturalism. There are general education courses to broaden students' perspectives and develop in them the ability to face the challenges of contemporary society.
	The eight Faculties offer a wide array of excellent undergraduate and postgraduate programmes.
University features	A comprehensive research university with a global vision, The Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK) embraces internationalisation in its education and research, with a view to achieving excellence and gaining recognition for the University as a global leader.
	The first student exchange program at CUHK was launched in 1965 with the University of California system. Today, CUHK has established partnerships with over 270 universities and institutions from around the world, ranging from teaching and research collaboration to faculty and student exchange, apart from joining a number of international associations to facilitate academic exchange. Serving as its international relations arm, the Office of Academic Links (OAL) promotes and facilitates the internationalisation of CUHK in its research, teaching and learning programmes so as to seek recognition for the University as a leader on the global stage.
Short description of the city	Hong Kong is situated at the southeastern tip of the mainland of China. Being a small trading port in 19th century, Hong Kong is now Asia's financial hub. It returned to Chinese sovereignty on 1 July 1997 as a Special Administrative Region after more than a century and a half of British rule.
	Hong Kong has an eclectic culture rich in Chinese customs and generously sprinkled with influences from southeast Asia and the West. Traditional Chinese festivals are celebrated each year, as are western festivals such as Christmas.
