

Seminar

"Child Protection and 'Race' in 20th Century America"

Assistant Professor Mariko Omori of the International Education Development Program has recently published her book "Protection" and "Classification": A Social History of Japanese Immigrant Children in America (Kyushu University Press, 2022; in Japanese).

In the seminar, she will critically introduce the history of child protection policies/works and "race" in 20th century U.S. (Not required to read the book in advance to join this seminar.)

Language

English

Venue

Onsite & Online

Onsite Venue: Small Conference Room
1st Floor of IDEC Building, Hiroshima University

Online: A Zoom link will be sent individually after registration.

February 28 (Tue)
18:00-19:00

Speaker: Assistant Professor Mariko Omori

Registration

Please register by Feb. 27 at the URL or QR code below.

<https://forms.gle/7DReuZFt3zY9qXEz5>

