

The 34th IPC Seminar

De-radicalization programs in selected Middle East Countries:
Egypt and Saudi Arabia

Registration
Form

2 July (Tue.)

10:00-11:20

Small Conference Room

Abstract

Many Arab countries have de-radicalization / CVT programs. How they function and their impact. Have they closed the terror fountain?
In this lecture I will evaluate the work of 2 Arab countries that produced top radical terrorists and thinkers, Egypt and Saudi Arabia.

Dr. Said Sadek

Professor of Peace Studies,
Egypt-Japan University.
Dr. Sadek has a Ph.D. in political Science from Cairo University, in peace studies and conflict resolution. His Ph.D was on how President Sadat used the media to change the image of Israel in Egyptian media 1974-1979 to pave the way for peace treaty with Israel. His career included working as a political and communication advisor for the Embassy of Finland and the EU Commission in Cairo.

<https://forms.office.com/r/5nbuXEAYwX>

Please register from here