

Organized by Committee for 1st Soka-Café Gathering

Admission free

Supported by Research Center for Diversity Inclusion, HU

& Hiroshima LGBTs Student Group Light

Language/ Japanese & English

Early registration

The first Soka Café, 2024

Sexual Diversity

& Campus Life

Film & Discussion

- Watching the Film “Kalanchoe”
- Sharing ideas
- Learning basic knowledge on sexuality and more

Join us and learn from each other!

The film “Kalanchoe” (Kalanchoe no Hana) is a Japanese movie in 2016. It's ever screened in many Japanese companies and schools.

It won the Rainbow Reel Tokyo and so on.

East Library 3rd Floor
Seminar Room A,B,C

2024.6.12 Wed

18:30 - 20:00

(Open 18:00)

Pictures from The film “kalanchoe”

~About the Story~

“Are there any LGBT students in our class?”

One day, in a Japanese high school, the teacher gave a short lesson on LGBT, making the student wonder, since the lesson was given to their class only. The students started to suspect who among them was LGBT?

Related event

Books and Comics about LGBTQ+ HU West Library 6/3~6/28)