

International Workshop for Philosophy of Peace - Philosophy of Peace in History: Kant in Hiroshima 2024 -

On: Saturday, October 19, 2024

At: Higashi-Senda Campus of Hiroshima University (SENDA LAB, Conference Room 3).

Organized by: Hiroshima University Project Research Center for Applied Ethics

Contact: Takahiro Kirihaara (kirihaara@hiroshima-u.ac.jp)

13:00 Start

【Special Lectures】

13:10-14:20 Matthias Lutz-Bachmann (Goethe University Frankfurt)

14:20-15:30 Soraya Nour Sckell (NOVA School of Law)

【Presentations and Discussions】

15:40-16:20 Morals and Politics toward Perpetual Peace: Thinking together with Kant in Hiroshima in 2024

Toshiro Terada (Sophia University)

16:20-17:00 Reconciliation with Reality: Significance of Telling a Truth

Tomoki Hazama (Hiroshima University)

17:00-17:40 Compromise Method for Dealing with Unjustifiable Actions in Walzer's Political Thought—An Preliminary Essay for Overcoming the Limitation of Just War Theory

Junya Hamai (National Institute of Technology, Niihama College)

17:40-18:20 Reconstructing Kant's Political Theory as a Philosophy of Peace: Historical Contexts and the Moral Philosophical Foundation

Takahiro Kirihaara (Hiroshima University)

