

Guideline for Academic Year 2024 Student Conference Funding 2nd period

The Graduate School of Humanities and Social Sciences subsidizes conference registration, participation, transport, accommodation expenses to support graduate students who present their research outcome at domestic and international conferences.

We are inviting applications for the 2024 financial support. Please go through the following details before application.

1 Eligibility for application

Students in master's, doctoral and professional degree programs at the Graduate School of Humanities and Social Sciences are eligible to apply for this funding if they meet all the following conditions.

- (1) Those who will present the research outcome (oral or poster presentation) as the principal presenter
- (2) Those who have not received any financial support from the conference organizer or other organizations for the presentation
- (3) Those who have not received any financial support under this funding system for the relevant fiscal year.
- (4) Those who were not on leave

2 Target conferences, etc

As a general rule, domestic conferences are those that are held at the national level, and the international conferences are those that are held with approximately 100 or more participants, and all the presentations must be peer reviewed.

3 Period of Target conferences

The dates for the domestic and international conferences, more specifically presentation, must be held between August 1st, 2024, and January 31st, 2025.

4 Subsidy amount

- Domestic in Japan : maximum amount of 30,000 yen per person
- Outside of Japan : maximum amount of 100,000 yen per person

All or a part of the conference registration, participation, transport, accommodation fees, will be reimbursed based on the receipts submitted after the conferences.

5 Subsidized expenses

- Conference registration and participation fees (Annual membership fees are excluded.)
- Round-trip transportation expenses to reach the conference venue

(It is limited to the use of public transportation. However, for international academic conferences, it includes the airfare for reaching the airport closest to the venue [including the cost of transportation such as train and bus between the place of departure/ arrival and the airport in Japan]. The taxi fares are excluded.)

- Accommodation expenses (limited to the accommodation at the venue)

In the case of an online conference, only the conference registration and participation fees will be covered.

7 Application period

From December 1, 2024 to December 31, 2024

8 Selection process

The Research Promotion Committee of the Graduate School of Humanities and Social Sciences will make the selection decision after students are selected by the director of the program to which the students are affiliated.

9 Selection results

The applicants will be notified of the result sometime after February 1, 2025. Meanwhile, all applicants should keep the following documents because those, who are selected, will be required to submit them.

- (1) Documents showing that you participated the conference
- (2) An original receipt for the conference registration and/or participation fees
- (3) Original receipts of the transportation and accommodation expenses, airline ticket stubs etc.

10 Obligations of those selected

After the presentation, promptly submit a report on the presentation of the research outcome (Appendix Form 1) to the support office in charge of the program of your affiliation by attaching the documents showing your participation in the conference, receipts, and air ticket stubs (if the documents are not submitted by the specified date, your selection may be cancelled).

1.1 Points to note

- (1) Approval of the main academic advisor is required for the application
- (2) Each applicant shall be selected only once in a year
- (3) Transportation and accommodation expenses shall be the amount calculated via the adoption of an economical route and a method based on the submitted documents
- (4) In the event the submitted research presentation is changed or cancelled, the student must promptly report about this to the support office in charge of the program to which the student is affiliated to, regardless of whether it is during the selection or after the selection is decided
- (5) If the dates for the domestic or international academic conferences are scheduled in February or March 2025, those who are enrolled in this graduate school after April 2025 can apply for this funding next period, thus, be sure to keep the receipts, etc. in hand. Note that those who are scheduled to complete their studies in March 2025 are not eligible to apply for the presentations during this period.
