人文社会科学系分野の 評価指標はどうあるべきか 一研究評価の最新動向と今後の方向性一

近年世界的に広がるオープンサイエンス化の動きの中で、サンフランシスコ宣言 (DORA: San Francisco Declaration on Research Assessment) といった、インパクトファクターなどの数量的指標を用いない代替的な研究評価に関する提言が、多くの学術雑誌出版社や研究機関から賛同・署名を得ています。今回のFDセミナーでは、二人の講師をお招きし、国内外の研究評価の最新動向を学ぶとともに、人文社会科学系分野を中心とした様々な専門分野における研究評価が今後どうあるべきかを考えます。

The 2nd GSHS Faculty Development Seminar (2024)

Hosted by Graduate School of Humanities and Social Sciences Faculty Development Task Force

How Should Evaluation Indicators Be Designed in the Field of Humanities and Social Sciences?

Latest Trends in Research Evaluation and Future Directions

Amid the global trend toward open science in recent years, initiatives such as the San Francisco Declaration on Research Assessment (DORA), which advocate for alternative research evaluations without relying on quantitative indicators like impact factors, have gained support and endorsements from numerous academic publishers and research institutions.

In this FD seminar, we will invite two speakers to explore the latest trends in research evaluation both domestically and internationally. Together, we will consider how research evaluation should be conducted in the future, particularly in the field of humanities and social sciences, as well as in various other specialized disciplines.

Thursday, December 19, 2024, 16:00 – 17:30 p.m. (JST)

[Venue] Meeting Room 3,4 2 Floor, Management Building, School of Education (Combination of in-person and online via Zoom)
