Student Application Guide

Hiroshima University Graduate School of Integrated Sciences for Life, the Program of Life and Environmental Sciences (Doctoral Programs)

Based on its Diploma Policy and Curriculum Policy, this program expects to admit students as described below.
Students who:

1. Have a broad interest in the life science fields from the molecular level to whole environments and ecosystems, and who wish to acquire basic research abilities, expertise and skills for a specific field, and learn the theories and methods of understanding and utilizing these abilities from a comprehensive perspective;
2. Wish to understand various problems existing in life science and environmental science, and to solve them professionally, immediately, and internationally;
3. Wish to play an active role independently as a generalist who also covers areas outside life science and environmental science without being constrained by their own expertise;
4. Have acquired abilities at the level of completing a graduate school's Master's Program or higher regarding their command of English;
5. Have acquired abilities at the level of completing a graduate school's Master's Program or higher regarding knowledge, attitude, and skills in the specialized fields of their choice; and
6. Have acquired common sense as a working member of society, and ethical standards as a researcher or a highly specialized engineer.

In order to admit such individuals, this program selects applicants through a multifaceted and comprehensive evaluation process based on its own Diploma Policy and Curriculum Policy, using interviews, etc.
