

Graduate School of Innovation and Practice for Smart Society
Completion Schedule (Master's Courses)

Year		Entollment in Apr.	Entollment in Oct.	Student		Supervisor/ Subadvisor Group		Faculty Committee/ Faculty Council, etc.
First Year	1 Sem	Apr.	Oct.	Take "Research Ethic Education (Graduate Students - Basic)"
				Submit a "Notification of the Research Title" (including the Supervising Group)	←	Approve the Notification of Research Title		Approve the Notification of the Supervising Group
		}	}
	2 Sem	Sep.	Mar.
		Oct.	Apr.
		}	}
Second Year	3 Sem	Mar.	Sep.
		Apr.	Oct.
		}	}
	4 Sem	Sep.	Mar.	Take "Research Ethic Education (Graduate Students - Advanced)" (*Complete before start writing a Master's Thesis.)
				Interim presentation (joint session)	←	Supervise presentation
		Oct.	Apr.	Submit the "Outline of Master's Thesis"				Approve the outline of thesis Organize the Screening Committee
				Write the Master's Thesis	←	Supervise thesis writing
		Nov.	May
		Dec.	Jun.
		Jan.	Jul.	Submit the Master's Thesis and "Summary of Master's Thesis"
		Feb.	Aug.	Oral Presentation for the Master's Thesis, Screening, and Final Examination		Conduct the screening and announce the result		Screening by Screening Committee
				Earn the required credits				Final screening by Faculty Council
		Mar.	Sep.	Complete the doctoral course and earn the degree

- Note 1 This schedule shows the procedures to complete the master course of the Graduate School of Innovation and Practice for Smart Society (the "Graduate School").
- Note 2 In addition to the "Decision Criteria for Awarding Degrees and Evaluation Standards" in the Student Handbook, students should confirm the basic requirements for completion of the Graduate School of Innovation and Practice for Smart Society as stipulated in the "Hiroshima University Graduate School Regulations", "Hiroshima University Degree Regulations", "By-laws of the Graduate School of Innovation and Practice for Smart Society", "Internal Regulations of the Graduate School of Innovation and Practice for Smart Society".
- Note 3 Students should check relevant notices each time provided through My Momiji about the completion procedures of the Graduate School informed by Support Office for the fields of International Development and Cooperation.