

HIROSHIMA UNIVERSITY

One-day seminar

Global Technological Citizenship Education

10:00–17:00

September 27, 2025

Faculty Club, Hiroshima Univ.

KEYNOTE LECTURE:

Global Trends in Addressing
ELSI in Emerging Science and Technology

Prof. Ryuma Shineha, Keio
Univ.

PANEL DISCUSSION:

Perspectives for GTC Education
Across Borders

Invited international collaborators and guest speakers

This international seminar will showcase the progress made in developing the Global Technological Citizenship education curriculum and explore future directions. Researchers from 10 universities across 7 countries will engage in comparative analyses and multifaceted discussions.

This work was supported by JSPS KAKENHI Grant Number
JP22KK0031 (FY 2023-2025, PI: Ayami Nakaya)

PROGRAM

Moderator: Dr. Toshiro Goji

- 10:00 OPENING REMARKS AND PROJECT OVERVIEW:
Prof. Ayami Nakaya (Hiroshima Univ.)
- 10:30 GROUP PHOTO
- 10:45 KEYNOTE LECTURE:
“Global Trends in Addressing Ethical, Legal, and Social Issues in Emerging Science and Technology”
Prof. Ryuma Shineha (Keio Univ.),
- 11:30 PROJECT REPORT – Overall Output:
Prof. Akimasa Fujiwara
- 12:15 Lunch
- 13:30 COUNTRY REPORTS
- Japan: Ayami Nakaya (Hiroshima University)
  - Indonesia: Suci Lestari Yuana (Universitas Gadjah Mada)
  - Indonesia: Junita Widiati Arfani (Universitas Islam Cordoba Banyuwangi)
  - Indonesia: Maya Safira (Institut Teknologi Bandung)
  - Korea: Sanghwa Song (Incheon National University)
  - United States: Seock Hong (University of North Texas)
  - Vietnam: Le Anh Son (Phenikaa University)
- 15:20 PANEL DISCUSSION:
“Perspectives for GTC Education Across Borders”
Prof. Shineha, Prof. Saito (Monash Univ.), Dr. Varghese (IIT Tirupati), Dr. Yuana, Dr. Safira, Prof. Song, Prof. Hong, Prof. Son, Prof. Nakaya
- 17:00 CLOSING ADDRESS:
Prof. Akimasa Fujiwara

REGISTRATION

