- Document D: Document to Prove Your English Language Proficiency
- Document E: Academic Transcripts and Test Results
- Document F: Copy of Passport
- Document G: Application Documents Checklist

(IMPORTANT)

1. In principle, application documents must be originals, unless otherwise designated. For certificates and other documents that cannot be reissued, submit a certified copy^{*1} instead of the original document, because none of your submitted application documents can be returned.

^{*1}A copy certified by an official organization (preferably an organization, such as a school, that issued the said document) as true to the original, and on which the said organization has placed its official seal

2. Documents serving as certificates written in a language other than Japanese or English must be accompanied by a Japanese or English translation. Please attach an official translation with the translator's name, contact information and signature or official seal for documents^{*2}. The translations are accepted only when they are made by the organization that issued the said document, a translation company, or a qualified translator^{*2}.

^{*2}Except for the documents attached to the Personal Statement 3 (Additional Information) form (Document A).

3. If the applicant's present name is different from that written on the application documents due to a name change or other reasons, please provide a copy of official documents, such as an official copy of the applicant's family register, issued by an official institution, to prove that the applicant is the same person as the person indicated on the documents submitted.

Document A: Personal Statement

Submit each of the forms: "Personal Statement 1," "Personal Statement 2," and "Personal Statement 3 (Additional Information)."

On the Personal Statement 1 and 2 forms, write an essay for each form as explained in the application guide.

Personal Statement 3 (Additional Information) indicates whether or not you have documentation to prove your accomplishments and achievements. Even if you do not have such documentation, nevertheless please submit Personal Statement 3 (Additional Information) with the "None in particular" box checked. On the other hand, if you have such a document or documents, write the title and a brief explanation of each on the Personal Statement 3 (Additional Information) form. Attach this documentation (photocopies are accepted) to this form. Please classify all the documents under a maximum of five categories (e.g. volunteer work, speech contests, and so on).

*Examples of documentation include:

- Certificates for winning prizes in contests such as speech contests, debate competitions, etc.
- Results of foreign language proficiency tests
- Documents that prove participation in volunteer work, study abroad, Science Olympics, etc.

Document B: Educational Background

Submit the completed specified form for your Educational Background (1/2) and (2/2).

Document C: Document to Prove Your Application Eligibility

Submit this document to prove your application eligibility by completing the following applicable items (1) through (8).
