Welcome to HU Library – Supporting Your Study with Rich Resources

Hiroshima University Library holds approximately 3.4 million volumes.

Group study rooms support collaborative learning and discussion.

Individual study rooms offer quiet, focused study.

You can also use the Media Space to create digital data and content.

Start by learning the basics of using the HU Library OPAC (Online Public Access Catalog).

Search HU library materials here

These tabs allow you to search for articles and papers from Japan and overseas, as well as holdings of other universities and the National Diet Library. Try switching between tabs.

Central Library entry and exit gates were renewed on March 25.

Central

New gates open automatically as you approach.

Azuchi Castle model arrived from Hiroshima University Museum on March 26.

Central

It is on display near the Library Hall on the first floor of the Central Library. Please feel free to stop by.

The castle's interior structure has been carefully reproduced.

An air-conditioning improvement project is underway at the Central Library.

Central

Construction to expand the Central Library air-conditioning system will begin in April. Some seating may be unavailable, and noise may occur during construction. Thank you for your understanding as we work to improve the learning environment.

Hiroshima University's Mascot, Hiroty, is now at service counters in each library.

Hiroty figures wear handmade name tags and aprons by staff.

Japan Search × HU Library Digital Archive

Since March 17, Japan Search, which is operated by the National Diet Library, has been linked with the Hiroshima University Library Digital Archive.

Along with cultural assets and visual materials from across Japan, you can search Hiroshima University collections such as old maps and illustrated charts at the same time. Simply enter a keyword to easily discover valuable materials.
