

Instructions:

Please complete Page 2 of this document and prepare it on the official letterhead of your home Institution.

The document must be completed and signed by a professor or program director of an English-taught program, or by the program that the student has completed or is currently enrolled in.

This document is required as proof of English language proficiency for the HUSA application and student visa procedures in Japan.

Date: dd/mm/yyyy

Certification of Language Proficiency

We hereby certify that the following student possesses the English language proficiency required* to study at your institution.

Home University:

Name of Student:

Faculty/School:

Certified Language Proficiency

Please tick (✓) all that apply

- The student meets the English proficiency level required* for enrollment
- The student provides proof of English proficiency other than TOEFL or IELTS scores (e.g., CEFR, Cambridge English Qualifications). - Please attach supporting documents.
- Previously graduated from a degree program in which the courses were taught in English.
- Earned credits from courses conducted in English while currently enrolled in a degree program
- Native English speaker
- Other - (please provide details):

* Required minimum scores: TOEFL iBT 61+ (or CBT 173+, PBT 500+),

IELTS Academic 5.0+ or equivalent English proficiency

Name:

Position:

Affiliation:

University Name:

Signature:

Date: