

Instructions for Operating the Authentication Screen When Accessing Electronic Journals and Databases

1. When using databases: pp. 1–4
2. When using electronic journals: pp. 5–8

1. When using databases

1-1. Click “Database” on the Hiroshima University Library website.

The screenshot shows the Hiroshima University Library website. On the left, there is a sidebar with a table of opening hours for various libraries (Central, East, West, Kasumi, Higashi-Senda) and a vertical menu with links like 'Visit HU libraries', 'Search Materials', 'Special Collections', etc. The main content area features a search bar, a navigation menu with 'Database' highlighted in a red box, and sections for 'Online Services' and 'News&Topics'.

1-2. The database list screen will be displayed. If you know the name of the journal or database you wish to use, click the “Search” button to search for the database.
(In this example, we use Scopus.)

1-3. The search screen will be displayed. Enter the name of the database you wish to use and perform a search.

2-5. The Hiroshima University Academic Authentication Federation login screen will appear. Enter your HIRODAI ID and password.

The screenshot shows the login page for Hiroshima University's Academic Authentication Federation. At the top, there is the Hiroshima University logo and the text "広島大学 学術認証フェデレーション". Below this, there is a paragraph of instructions in Japanese and English: "広大IDとパスワードを入力して'ログイン'ボタンを押下してください。Input HIRODAI ID and its password, then click on the Login button." There are two input fields: "広大ID/HIRODAI ID" and "パスワード". Below the fields are two checkboxes: "ログイン状態を記憶しない" and "ユーザ情報送信の同意を解除する". A blue "ログイン" button is positioned below the checkboxes. At the bottom, there is a red warning message: "【広島大学は多要素認証を義務付けています/Multi-Factor Authentication (MFA) is mandatory in Hiroshima University】" followed by text explaining that service is not available from outside the university without MFA and that a warning message will be shown if not set up.

2-6. Log in using your HIRODAI ID and password.

This screenshot is identical to the one above, but with a red box highlighting the "広大ID/HIRODAI ID" and "パスワード" input fields and the "ログイン" button. A red arrow points from the top-left corner of the red box to the "ログイン" button, indicating the next step in the login process.

2-7. After authentication via the Hiroshima University Academic Authentication Federation, the target electronic journal page will be displayed automatically. You can then access and view the electronic journal.

Stress impairs your brain's ability to link memories – dampening insight

Imaging suggests why the ability to make inferences declines after an episode of acute stress, such as a job interview.
