

HIROSHIMA UNIVERSITY

ISAPh 2026

The 6th International Symposium on Applied Phonetics

Connecting people and the world through voice

 September 14 (Mon) – 16 (Wed), 2026

 Eikei University of Hiroshima
(Hiroshima City, Japan)

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Bryan Gick
University of British Columbia
What is Applied Phonetics?

Jeff Mielke
North Carolina State University
Consonant Production Before and After Jaw Surgery

Douglas Pulleyblank
University of British Columbia
*Phonological Representations:
The Conflicting Demands of Morphology and Phonetics*

Nobuaki Minematsu
University of Tokyo
*Training Ears and Tongues with AI:
Scalable, Customizable, and Embodied
English Courseware for the EMI Transition*

WORKSHOP SPEAKERS

Julián Villegas (University of Aizu)
*Analysis of Fundamental Frequency Trajectories
Using Generalized Additive Models*

MUSP (Multilingual UltraSound Project)
A Methodological Introduction to Ultrasound Research in Applied Phonetics

Donna Erickson (Haskins Laboratory)
Jaw Dancing with MARRYS: Hands-on Recording of L1-L2 Jaw Differences Using MARRYS Helmet

HOW TO REGISTER

Please register via Peatix
using the QR code below.

Early Bird
Discount
Deadline:
June 14
(Sun)!

Register on Peatix

Registration Deadline
August 30 (Sun), 2026 23:59
(Japan Time)

<https://peatix.com/event/5028954>

<https://isaph2026.wordpress.com/>

SPECIAL BENEFIT FOR REGISTRANTS

Carlos Ishi

RIKEN Guardian Robot Project
Prosody, Voice Quality, and Nonverbal Expression in Dialogue: Analysis and Applications for Social Robots
Special Lecture (No additional fee)

- 1pm, Sunday, September 13, 2026
- Waseda University, Tokyo
- Part of the 100th Anniversary Event of the Phonetic Society of Japan
- Show the proof of registration of ISAPh2026 at the reception

REGISTRATION FEE INCLUDES

-  Access to all sessions
-  Coffee/tea breaks and snacks (Sept 14-16)
-  Banquet (September 15)
-  Special Lecture by Dr. Carlos Ishi (September 13)