Borrowing Materials from Public Libraries

Through inter-library agreements with public libraries, Hiroshima University Students, Faculty, and Friendly Members can borrow books from Hiroshima City Library, Hiroshima Prefectural Library, and Higashihiroshima City Library, and pick them up and return them at Hiroshima University Libraries.

To use this service, you must have a library card for the library you would like to borrow from.

- Hiroshima City Library
- Hiroshima Prefectural Library
- Higashihiroshima City Library

Please Note:

- You cannot use this service for books that are already in Hiroshima University Libraries' holdings.
- Materials checked out through Inter-library loan are the public libraries' valuable property. When checking out and using these materials, please be very careful.
- Please do not deform or damage the books in any way.
- If you lose or otherwise damage materials borrowed from a public library, you may have to pay a fee based on their policies.
- Please be careful of the return date. If you have an overdue material, your next use of this service may be restricted.

- This website provides book search and application services for HU members. For information such as our library usage guide and announcements, please refer to the homepage.

Borrowing Materials from Other Libraries

When there is a material that you need and cannot find on campus, copies of the materials can be ordered from other libraries through Hiroshima University Library.

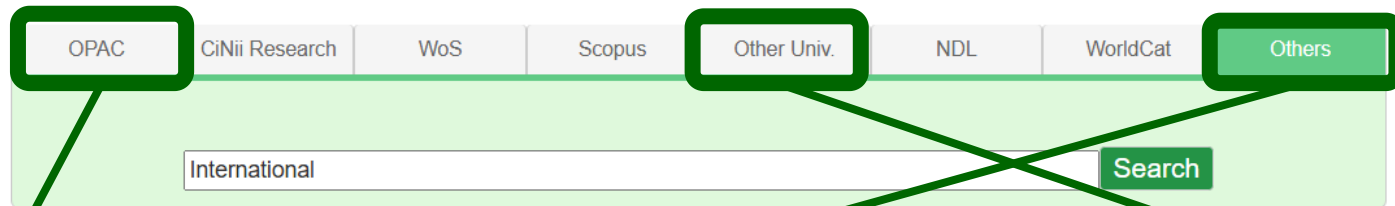

- This service is only for members of Hiroshima University and Friendly Members.
- The applicant is responsible for paying the costs of this service (copying fee, postage, etc.).
- If you would like to ask for and use materials directly at another university or institution, please check this page.

■ Please Confirm Before Applying:

- When materials are available at other Hiroshima University campuses or research labs, please go to use them yourself.
- Please make absolute sure that the material is not available on any Hiroshima University campus through OPAC.
- When applying for copies, the applicant accepts responsibility for any copyright considerations. Please make sure to confirm if your request complies with copyright law.
- To ensure prompt acquisition of materials, users are, in principle, not permitted to specify duplication methods that place a burden on the lending library.
