Busan: Gateway to Asia

PNU is located in the northern part of Busan Metropolitan City, a bustling port city of close to 3.6 million residents and Korea's second-largest metro area. Busan is famous for its natural environment, the perfect harmony of mountains, rivers and sea, with superb oceanfront vistas, such as Haeundae and Gwangali Beaches, scenic cliffs, and some of Asia's most famous hot springs. Natural endowments and a rich history have resulted in Busan's increasing reputation as a regional leader in tourism and culture. Busan also has become one of the most attractive destinations for the expanding global film industry, the result—along with the driving force of the Busan International Film Festival (known as BIFF)—of those features that make the city so magical: beautiful scenery, traditional elegance, open-mindedness, progressiveness, and an energy unmatched anywhere else in Asia. That's why it's called 'Dynamic Busan!'

The program features chanting services, 108 prostrations, Dado (tea ceremony), and has a strong emphasis on Seon (Zen) meditation.

Taekwondo

Students will get the opportunity to visit this park-like structure in one of Busan's most upscale areas—Centum City—situated near Haeundae and Gwangali Beaches.

Gwangali Beach Walking Tour (Session B only)

Gwangali Beach has become the center for Busan entertainment and nightlife for young Koreans and international visitors. With its beautiful oceanfront view of Gwangang Bridge, numerous nightclubs and seafood restaurants, many hotels and famous raw fish market, Gwangali offers a nearly unlimited supply of exciting things to see and do during a lovely summer afternoon.
