

Graduate General Education Subjects (for students of all graduate schools)

As general education for students of all graduate schools, Hiroshima University offers the following courses.

Credits earned by taking these courses may be counted toward completion requirements of a degree program in accordance with the completion criteria established by each graduate school. For syllabus and registration procedures, please log into My Momiji.

<Courses for Academic Year 2014> 【Basic subjects】

* The classes below are offered in English.

Subject Name	Credits	Faculty/Graduate School
Management of Technology for Innovation (MOT-E1)	2	Graduate School of Engineering
Technology Transfer (MOT-E2)	2
Research Ethics	1	Graduate School of Science
Law and Global Policy	2	Graduate School of Social Sciences
General Biosphere Science (1)	2	Graduate School of Biosphere Science
General Biosphere Science (2)	2
International Relations	2	Graduate School for International Development and Cooperation
Environmental Management Technology	2
Economic Development and Policy	2
Educational Development	2
Asian Cultures	2
Peace and Security	2
Lasting Peace and Culture	2

<Courses for Academic Year 2014> 【Specialized subjects】

* The classes below are offered in English.

Subject Name	Credits	Faculty/Graduate School
Practical Work on Writing Reports and Presentation (1)	2	Graduate School of Biosphere Science
Practical Work on Writing Reports and Presentation (2)	2
Foundation of Curriculum Development for Science Education	4	International Development and Cooperation
Developing Designing Ability	2	