

Education, Conflict and Peacebuilding:

Title

Re-envisioning Education in Post-conflict Societies

Summary

While the role of education in economic development and social change has been long celebrated, in recent years, the literature in the field of education and conflict studies has highlighted the contentious role of education in violent conflict. In this presentation, he will examine the nexus between education and armed conflict particularly, focusing on two post-conflict societies Cambodia and Nepal.

Speaker

Dr Tejendra Pherali

Current Position

Senior Lecturer in Education and International Development,
University of London

Date

October 24th, 2014 10:00~11:30

Venue

IDEC 1F Large Conference Room

Language

English