

Theme: "SDGs' burning agendas from ECD to Job relevant skills: Analytical framework and operations in South Asia"

Date/Time August 4th ,2016 16:30-18:00

Speaker Dr. Shinsaku Nomura
Sr. Economist, Education Global Practice, World Bank

Dr. Shinsaku Nomura is Sr. Economist at the Education Global Practice in the World Bank. His specialization includes economics of education, impact evaluations, education financing, skills development and labor market analytics, and learning assessments for the quality of education. In operations, he is currently leading and working in multiple projects and tasks in Bangladesh, India, and Pakistan at different levels of education, including impact evaluations of Early childhood education, learning assessments in primary and secondary education, skills development projects, and labor market big data analytics. One of the areas of current analytical interests is non-cognitive skills development and the labor market.

Venue IDEC Large Conference room

Contact

kshibuya@hiroshima-u.ac.jp