

Overview of International NGO and Its Challenges for Better Development Assistance

Date&Time: December 14, 2013 (Sat) 16:00-18:00

Venue: Large Meeting Room, University Hall,

Hiroshima University

Lecturer: Mr. Ryoichiro Mochizuki, World Vision Japan

<Profile>

Graduated from Faculty of International Studies, Hiroshima City University and completed Graduate School of International Cooperation Studies, Kobe University. Started the career as a Researcher at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan (Embassy of Japan in the Republic of Zambia) and then became a JICA expert (Advisor on Aid Management in Republic of Malawi). Joined World Vision Japan in March 2011 and currently engaged in international development projects in Asia and Africa.

Language: English

Not only IDEC students but also students in other faculty/graduate school are welcome to join.

※We will have Q&A session in the seminar.

※For registration, please send your name and student ID number to the following address by December 11th (Wed).

[IDEC Student Support Group]
koku-gaku@office.hiroshima-u.ac.jp

Please bring your student ID card to the seminar!