Special Seminar to Produce Global-minded Students

Instructor: Kenzo Oshima

Kenzo Oshima, the Special-Missioned Scholar of Hiroshima University's President, will provide another special seminar to produce global-minded students in November. Mr. Oshima was the former Japanese ambassador to Australia and Japan's representative to the UN, vice-chairman of JICA, etc.

Time: November 25 & 26 (Wed. & Thu.) 16:30 ~ 19:00

Place: J101 CALL classroom (Faculty of Integrated Arts and Sciences)

Accepted number of students: About 25 (If you enroll in the course for the first time, you need to submit an essay to write why you want to join the seminar.)

Language: English

Instructors: Kenzo Oshima, Keiso Tatsukawa (Institute for Foreign Language Research and Education)

Themes: (1) Nelson Mandela (2) Refugees

Application: (1) If you enroll in the course for the first time, you need to type in why you want to join the seminar. Interviews will be given when necessary. Please submit an application form and the essay to the following website:
<http://home.hiroshima-u.ac.jp/flare/seminar/2015-2.html> (2) If you attended the seminar in September, you do not have to submit an essay, but you can just send an e-mail to tell that you want to join the seminar again, following the instructions. (3) We would like a couple of students to be "Initial Commentators" for each theme. This means you will give some introductory remarks for 3-5 minutes about the problem. Please volunteer to be "Initial Commentators"!

Deadline: ~~November 13~~ November 20, 2015 (Fri.) If the number of applications gets too big, we may stop accepting before November 13. The earlier you apply, the better chance you will get.

Announcement of the selection: It will be announced by ~~November 17~~ November 24.

If you have any questions about the seminar, please send an e-mail to:
