

May 31, 2016

Special Seminar to Produce Global-minded Students Instructor: Kenzo Oshima

Kenzo Oshima, the Special-Missioned Scholar of Hiroshima University's President, will provide another seminar to produce global-minded students in June. Mr. Oshima is a former Japanese ambassador to Australia, Japan's representative to the UN, and the vice-chairman of JICA.

Time: June 9 (Thu.) 9:00 ~ 16:30 (Feel free to only join the morning or afternoon session, if you have a make-up class or other engagement.)

Place: J101 CALL classroom (Faculty of Integrated Arts and Sciences)

Accepted number of students: About 25 (If you enroll in the course for the first time, you need to submit a short essay explaining why you want to join the seminar.)

Language: English

Instructors: Kenzo Oshima, Jaime Selwood, Simon Fraser, and Keiso Tatsukawa
(Institute for Foreign Language Research and Education)

Themes: (1) President Obama's Visit to Hiroshima (2) Drinking Water
(Note: The originally-planned Aung San Suu Kyi talk has been moved to Sep.)

Application: (1) If you enroll in the course for the first time, you need to type in why you want to join the seminar. Interviews will be given when necessary. Please submit an application form and the essay to the following website:

<http://home.hiroshima-u.ac.jp/flare/seminar/2016-1.html>

(2) If you attended one of the three seminars last year, you do not have to submit an essay, but you can just send an e-mail to tell that you want to join the seminar again, following the instructions.

(3) We would like a couple of students to be "Initial Commentators" for each theme. This means you will give some introductory remarks for 3-5 minutes about the problem. Please volunteer to be "Initial Commentators"!

Deadline: 12:00 on June 6, 2016 (Mon.). If the number of applications gets too big, we may stop accepting before June 7. The earlier you apply, the better chance you will get.

Announcement of the selection: It will be announced by June 7.

If you have any questions about the seminar, please send an e-mail to:

Keiso Tatsukawa, Professor of Foreign Language Research and Education
(FLaRE), Hiroshima University, Office: A303 (Faculty of Integrated Arts and Sciences)

tatsukawa@hiroshima-u.ac.jp