

The 348th IDEC Seminar

The Power of Evidence in Development Policy and Cooperation: JICA's Challenge in Basic Education in Africa

Date January 20, 2017 (Fri) 17:00-18:15

Speaker Mr. Eiji Kozuka, Director, Basic Education II, Human Development Department, Japan International Cooperation Agency

Venue IDEC Large Conference Room

Speaker's Bio Mr. Eiji Kozuka has served as Director, Basic Education II, Human Development Department, as well as Senior Research Fellow, Research Institute, JICA, since May 2016. Before this assignment, he worked as Associate Professor, Graduate School for International and Development Cooperation, Hiroshima University (April 2013-March 2016) and as Researcher, Research Institute, JICA, (January 2010-March 2013). He has published papers related to impact evaluations of JICA-supported "School for All" projects in Niger and Burkina Faso. More info available: https://www.jica.go.jp/jica-ri/research/strategies/strategies_20090601-20140331.html

Contact

kshibuya@hiroshima-u.ac.jp