Events on 6th August Hosted by Hiroshima University

As the day to mark the seventy-second Anniversary of the Atomic Bombing is upon us, here we announce those events hosted by Hiroshima University.

On 2nd August, the Institute for Peace Science Hiroshima is holding an international symposium.

On 6th August, HU Memorial Service for the Victims of the Atomic Bomb is held to console the spirits of the administrative and faculty members, students and pupils of Hiroshima University's forerunners who experienced the bomb attack and lost their lives.

Following the memorial service, there will be a Hiroshima University lecture meeting to which Ms. Izumi Nakamitsu, who is the first Japanese female to have been appointed to the Under-Secretary-General and High Representative for Disarmament Affairs, is invited.

In addition, there will be an unveiling ceremony of an objet "Dove of Peace and Freedom" (an art object embedded with gravel from the Motoyasu River) followed by a session for opinion exchanges by the students on the topic of peace.
